

Ambie

Reference for Jacques Peacock

Jacques is one of the best product designers and front-end developers I've had the privilege of working with.

Jacques has a unique combination of design skills and technical ability, which proves incredibly useful in the planning stages of the project, as well as throughout the process.

He is fundamentally creative, with a naturally great eye, awareness of current trends and attention to detail - the latter being critical when implementing his designs.

Equally as important as his skillset, Jacques is an all-round team player, well liked by everyone in the company and - even through he works remotely - became an integral part of the company culture. He is straightforward, honest and an eternal optimist - a critical factor when working in a startup environment.

All-in-all, I wouldn't hesitate to recommend Jacques - any company would be lucky to have him.
